DANCE
WORLD PREMIERE

AUSTRALIA

SA Star Composer Alexander Mitchell Selected for Frame & Circle

South Australian Alex Waite Mitchell is making his festival debut as the composer for upcoming contemporary dance world premiere Frame and Circle. His audio prowess will make for a sensory feast for entertainment seekers, particularly when combined with the legendary work of contemporary dance choreographer Leigh Warren in Meridian.

Mitchell holds an impressive resume, having received First Class Honours for music composition under the tuition of acclaimed composer Graeme Koehne. He has received film, theatre and dance commissions in Australia and Asia. Also amongst his achievements is the Athol Lykke Award (Postgraduate Studies in Music Composition, Elder Conservatorium). Mitchell is now resident artist at the Shanghai Theatre Academy and SIPARC (Shanghai International Performing Arts Research Centre), producing live and recorded works for Festivals, events and productions in Shanghai.

"Alex brings a brilliant new talent that will be an important part of Australia's musical future. Daring, fresh and fulfilling; his pallet of sound reaches from the classical to the funkiest of rhythms. I'm thrilled to be working with him." said Warren

Frame and Circle is at the Space Theatre from March 10-14 and tickets are selling fast.
