WHAT MAKES LWD SPECIAL?

"We believe that the sense of ensemble in our company is unique and that part of our success springs from collaborations and partnerships with other artists. We have been supported by our audience in South Australia and this is our chance to share the success and excitement of future events in a more direct and less formal way than at the theatre." Leigh Warren

As well as supporting this proudly South Australian company, by becoming a Friend of LWD, you will enjoy opening night parties with artists, the chance to watch rehearsals and the opportunity to meet visiting dancers, choreographers or musicians working with LWD.

If you love dance – or just the arts in general – do not pass up the opportunity of becoming a Friend of LWD.

LEIGH WARREN CHOREOGRAPHER

Following a distinguished performing career with the Australian Ballet, Ballet Rambert, Nureyev & Friends and Nederlands Dans Theater, Leigh Warren was appointed Artistic Director of Australian Dance Theatre in 1987 – where he created fourteen works and toured the company within Australia and overseas. Since launching Leigh Warren & Dancers (LWD) in 1993, Warren has produced many original dance works, collaborated with distinguished choreographers such as William Forsythe and Uno Man – and also with many seminal Australian visual artists and musicians. From 2002-2007 Warren directed the entire trilogy of Philip Glass ‘portrait operas’ – a world first. The company has received many accolades since its formation – including Australian Dance Awards, a national Sidney Myer Performing Arts Award, several Green Room Awards and numerous Adelaide Critics’ Circle Awards. In 2007, Warren was presented with a prestigious Ruby Award from the South Australian Government for Sustained Contribution by an Individual.
