

A PROGRESSIVE DANCE COMPANY

South Australian based Leigh Warren & Dancers (LWD) is one of Australia's most progressive and prestigious contemporary dance companies. The launch of the Friends of Leigh Warren & Dancers in 2001 comes at a time of great success for the company, hot on the heels of the Sidney Myer Performing Arts Group Award.

Formed in 1993, LWD is no stranger to awards, having scooped the pool at the 1999 Australian Dance Awards, as well as picking up other accolades along the way. Headed by prestigiously talented choreographer Leigh Warren – who has worked extensively in Australia and abroad – LWD is a company going from strength to strength, carving out a rising profile in the national dance scene.

WHAT MAKES LWD SPECIAL?

"We believe that the sense of ensemble in our company is unique and that part of our success springs from collaborations and partnerships with other artists.

We have been supported by our audience in South Australia and this is our chance to share the success and excitement of future events in a more direct and less formal way than at the theatre"

As well as supporting this proudly South Australian company, by becoming a Friend of LWD, you will enjoy opening night parties with artists, picnics, cinema evenings, dinners, pool nights, gallery previews, the chance to watch rehearsals and the opportunity to meet visiting dancers, choreographers or musicians working with LWD.

If you love dance – or just the arts in general – do not pass up the opportunity of becoming a Friend of LWD.
